Asylum Interview Orientation Session

— December 8, 2022 —

What is the Purpose of the Asylum Interview?

Do you meet U.S. legal requirements for asylum?

Your chance to tell your story to the Asylum Officer

Helps Asylum Officer make a decision on your case

What is the Asylum Office? Who is the Asylum Officer?

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration
Services

Getting to the Asylum Office

Metal detector and bag scan

Waiting in waiting room

Fingerprints and photo taken

Asylum Officer will call you by the last three digits of your “A number”

Who Must Come to the Interview?

“Principal applicant”

Person whose name and information is at the top of I-589 asylum application

Spouse and children who are in the United States

Legally married for spouse

Children - unmarried and under 21

Interpreters

Asylum Office asks Dari and Pashto speakers to bring your own interpreter

If you do not, they will try to get an interpreter on the phone

It is BEST to BRING YOUR OWN INTERPRETER if you are able

Who Can Be an Interpreter?

MUST BE:

Fluent in Dari and English

MAKE SURE:

You understand each other!

MAY NOT BE:

Family member who is a derivative on the case or a witness in the case

Someone with an asylum application that is not yet decided

Your attorney

How to Work with an Interpreter

Speak 2 or 3 sentences and then let interpreter translate

REMEMBER: The interpreter is a human - not a computer

Asylum Officer will ONLY HEAR WHAT THE INTERPRETER SAYS IN ENGLISH

What Questions Will the Officer Ask You?

Questions from form I-589

Questions about why you are afraid to return to Afghanistan

Questions about things that could bar you from asylum

What Questions Will the Officer Ask Your Derivatives?

Your spouse and children will be asked about their identifying information and asylum bars

Your children will be asked asylum bar questions even if they are young

You as principal applicant cannot act as the interpreter for your spouse and children

How to Respond to Asylum Officer

Tell the truth!

If you don't know something, tell the officer you don't know

If you don't remember something, tell the officer you don't remember

If you are not sure, tell the officer you are not sure

If you don't understand the interpreter, tell the officer!

You can ask for a break if you need a break
